

Study Guide for What to Do About Crime

by Dr. Leonard Peikoff

- What is the contemporary approach to answering the cause of crime?
- What are the five broad attributes or character types of a criminal?
- Why is the rejection of reason at the root of the cause of crime?
- How can one understand the variation in the rate of crime in history?
- What ethical doctrine has been deeply influential in the crime problem?